

The Junior Leadership Cumberland (JLC) Program is designed for high school students in their Junior year. The program is designed to familiarize young leaders with the various elements that form a strong and dynamic community and to help students develop leadership skills. JLC consists of an orientation, a series of 6 monthly weekday sessions, a weekend community event, and a graduation ceremony.

The curriculum acquaints participants with community needs, opportunities, challenges, and resources. It's centered around the "7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens" by Steven Covey. It gives them the opportunity to develop leadership, communication, and team-building skills. It provides them with the opportunity to interact with students from other schools, community leaders, and decision-makers. There are also two community service projects selected by the class that the students participate in with the local community.

The program is offered to Central Pennsylvania's private, public, and parochial school students and approved by Cumberland County School Districts.
